bottle of the moment!

2021 la collina 'quaresimo' lambrusco 48 a co-op founded in 1975 by 12 young men with a staunch vision that everyone on the estate would coexist in harmony, farming the land biodynamically to produce artisan products that would support the effort, and offer this communal work opportunity to young adults recovering from addiction.

...below, a note from our wine director...

"such a classic food wine: with acidity in spades, low alcohol and palate-refreshing fizz, witness a combo that perfectly cuts through fat and washes down even the richest sauces. dark, inky and bone-dry, with tart cranberry, sour cherry and slightly tongue-tingling tannins, if you're dining on something even vaguely savory, this is your raison d'être"
