

INSPIRED BY GHANA

Cheers! Welcome to our little 'Taste of Ghana' in Lafleche

On previous menus, we've had the opportunity to feature wines and drinks directly from that country. Unfortunately, Ghanaian drinks have been hard to source and import. Despite this, we have curated this cocktail menu with Ghanaian flavors in mind - plenty of citrus, bold spices, hibiscus and coconut.

We were able to source some ingredients that come from Africa, specifically moringa ("Miracle Tree") and baobab ("Monkey Tree"). These have recently made their way to the west, but have been used in Africa for a long time, highly valued for their medicinal and nutritional properties. Moringa has a very earthy taste and compliments the mojito nicely, while baobab is paired with orange for a fresh, citrusy taste.

Sobolo is something you would find in many Ghanaian households, each with their own flair and recipe. We have taken inspiration from a few sources and come up with our own version - spices like star anise, cinnamon, grains of Selim, cloves, ginger, pineapple, orange, and of course hibiscus!
