

Protos Roble, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer

Our mission since 1927, has been to be faithful to our claim “BEING FIRST”, as an attitude of constant improvement with the sole aim of elaborating the best wine. These visionaries knew the importance of listening to the “terroir” and understand its needs, imagining a succesful endeavor, that has not only been kept intact, but continues to grow, always looking at the future.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14.5%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo

Origin: Ribera del Duero

Vinification: Aged for 4 months in French & American oak barrels.

Tasting notes

Bright cherry colour with purple rim. Frank and intense, where aromas of red and black fruit stand out, accompanied by spicy notes and light toasted notes. It has good structure, fruity, fresh, with a sweet balanced oak with very pleasant soft tannins.

Price

Bottle | £47

Flores de Callejo, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer

Callejo wines derive their character from Sotillo de la Ribera, located to the north of Duero river. They use ecological management techniques, preserving the character of the terrain, which allows them to reliably create wines that authentically express the full flavour of the land.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo

Origin: Ribera del Duero

Vinification: The grapes were carefully selected in the vineyard and cellar, destemmed, cold-soaked, and fermented in stainless steel with native yeasts. After maceration, the wine underwent spontaneous malolactic fermentation.

Tasting notes

Upon tasting, one discovers hints of balsamic and a pronounced woodiness, a legacy of its maturation in barrels. Delicate hints of licorice into a focused and robust finish. Fruity aromas.

Price

Bottle | £49

Laderas del Norte, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer

Laderas del Norte from Arzuaga is made from organically grown grapes picked on the Valdesardon estate belonging to the Arzuaga Navarro family. This is the most westerly vineyard in the DO Ribera del Duero at an altitude of 800 m (2,600 ft), in the municipality of Olivares de Duero. Chalky clay-sloping land has a great effect on the characteristics of the wine.

General information

Alcohol Content: 13.8%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo

Origin: Ribera del Duero

Vinification: Aged for 12 months in French oak barrels

Tasting notes

A vibrant red cherry color with purplish hues and a medium-high robe. The nose is dominated by Tempranillo's red fruit notes—raspberries, redcurrants, and strawberries—alongside floral hints of violet. These aromas are beautifully complemented by subtle caramelized and balsamic nuances from barrel aging. On the palate, the wine is round, fresh, elegant, and velvety, with a smooth, appealing finish.

Price

Bottle | £62

Parajes de Callejo, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer

The Callejo family winery was founded in 1989. The winery is known for its focus on showcasing the unique terroir of the Sotillo de la Ribera area, where the vineyards are situated. They use ecological management techniques in the vineyard to best express the character of their terroir.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14.5%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo, Garnacha, Albillo Mayor

Origin: Ribera del Duero

Vinification: Aged for 18 months in large oak barrels

Tasting notes

This wine presents an intense cherry color with cardinal highlights. The nose is vibrant and aromatic, showcasing wild red and black fruit, rosemary, lilac, and hints of cinnamon and confectionery. On the palate, it's complex and structured, with well-integrated oak, black plum, blueberry, and a touch of smokiness. A mineral character carries through to a lingering finish.

Price

Bottle | £75

Arzuaga Crianza, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer

The Tempranillo variety with which this wine is made belongs 70% to the La Maquinilla vineyard, the oldest of our La Planta farm; cultivated at 911 meters of altitude in calcareous clay soils with limestone rock one meter from the surface, together with 30% of grapes from centuries-old vineyards of pebbled and sandy soils, from the area of the province of Burgos.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14.6%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo, Cabernet Sauvignon & Merlot

Origin: Ribera del Duero

Vinification: 16 months in barrels, 75% French oak and 25% American oak

Tasting notes

This wine has an intense cherry color with cardinal highlights. Aromatic notes of wild red and black fruit, rosemary, and cinnamon lead to a complex, structured palate with integrated oak, black plum, blueberry, and a smoky, mineral finish.

Price

Bottle | £77

Protos '27, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer

Founded in 1927, Protos was the first winery in Ribera del Duero, initially named after the region. Protos expanded rapidly, acquiring a new winery in Anguix in 1986, and later built a state-of-the-art winery in Peñafiel. Today, Protos focuses on showcasing the purest expression of Tempranillo through strict grape selection and modern winemaking techniques.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14.5%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo

Origin: Ribera del Duero

Vinification: Aged for 16 months in large oak barrels

Tasting notes

This wine is highly aromatic and complex, with elegant fruit aromas of black fruit and plums, complemented by toasty notes and vanilla. Tertiary aromas of toffee and liquorice add depth, enhancing its rich character.

Price

Bottle | £82

Acón Reserva, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer

Abadía de Acón, a family-run winery in the heart of Ribera del Duero, traces its roots back to 1953 when Norberto Carrasco carved the original cellar from rocky clay. Known for producing robust, elegant wines, the winery focuses on Tempranillo with a touch of Cabernet Sauvignon in its Reserva. The family continues to blend traditional methods with modern techniques, creating wines that are rich, intense, and full of character.

General information

Alcohol Content: 15%

Grape Variety: 85 % Tempranillo, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon

Origin: Ribera del Duero

Vinification: Aging for 18 months in oak barrels (fine grain): French (80%) and American (20%).

Tasting notes

Intense and sweet on the nose with ripe fruits, liquorice, and smoky, vanilla notes. The palate is powerful, fleshy, and well-balanced with ripe tannins. The finish is tasty, enveloping, and persistent.

Price

Bottle | £89

Protos Reserva, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer

Our mission since 1927, has been to be faithful to our claim “BEING FIRST”, as an attitude of constant improvement with the sole aim of elaborating the best wine. These visionaries knew the importance of listening to the “terroir” and understand its needs, imagining a succesful endeavor, that has not only been kept intact, but continues to grow, always looking at the future.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14.5%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo

Origin: Ribera del Duero

Vinification: 18 months in french and american barrels. 24 months in bottle.

Tasting notes

Dark cherry color with garnet rim. Intense nose of black fruit, licorice, light toasted, vanilla, spices, mineral and bal samic notes. Good acidity, with great balance of fruit & oak. Persistent and harmonious finish.

Price

Bottle | £95

Pesquera Reserva, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer	Alejandro Fernandez founded his winery in 1972, building it around a 16th-century wine press. Located in Pesquera de Duero, the winery spans 200 hectares of vineyards, mainly planted with Tempranillo. The name honors the town where Alejandro and Esperanza were born.
General information	Alcohol Content: 15% Grape Variety: Tempranillo Origin: Ribera del Duero
Tasting notes	An elegant wine with a velvety mouthfeel and an abundance of aromatic nuances and black fruits such as damson, blackcurrant and blueberries. There are hints of well seasoned fruit, rich hints of cocoa and vanilla. A complex wine which reveals many layers to this wine and an incredibly long finish.
Price	Bottle £133

Arzuaga Gran Reserva, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer	The Tempranillo variety with which this wine is made belongs 70% to the La Maquinilla vineyard, the oldest of our La Planta farm; cultivated at 911 meters of altitude in calcareous clay soils with limestone rock one meter from the surface, together with 30% of grapes from centuries-old vineyards of pebbled and sandy soils, from the area of the province of Burgos.
General information	Alcohol Content: 14.4% Grape Variety: 95% Tempranillo, 5% Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot Origin: Ribera del Duero Vinification: 60 months in new French barrels.
Tasting notes	This garnet-red wine offers a complex nose of ripe fruit, cinnamon, tobacco, and spices, with a hint of roasted liquorice. On the palate, it is harmonious, blending fresh acidity with a smooth, silky finish. Spicy notes from the nose linger on the retronasal, enhancing the experience.
Price	Bottle £249

Vega Sicilia Unico, D.O. Ribera Del Duero

The Producer

Alejandro Fernandez founded his winery in 1972, building it around a 16th-century wine press. Located in Pesquera de Duero, the winery spans 200 hectares of vineyards, mainly planted with Tempranillo. The name honors the town where Alejandro and Esperanza were born.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo/Tinto fino, Cabernet Sauvignon

Origin: Ribera del Duero

Tasting notes

Lightly baked and hinting at raisin and fine herbs, the bouquet on this benchmark Spanish red enfolds aromas of tobacco, moss and ripe tomato. In the mouth, it's elegant and silky but also full and expansive. Flavors of baked berry fruits, baking spices, herbs and cocoa finish with a light coating of toast. This is an amazingly complete, exemplary wine that's just entering its prime.

Price

Bottle | £997

