

Santalba Natural, D.O. Rioja

The Producer

Founded in 1964 by Santiago Ijalba and now run by his children Roberto and Laura, Bodega Santalba is a pioneer in white Rioja production. Committed to ecological grape-growing, sustainability, and innovation, they blend traditional Rioja winemaking with modern practices, earning numerous awards for their wines.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14.5%
Grape Variety: Tempranillo
Origin: Rioja

Tasting notes

This wine has a dark, intense purple color with blackish tones and a rich, glycerine texture. The nose offers rustic aromas of ripe black cherries, plums, violets, and thyme. On the palate, it presents chewy tannins, mouthwatering acidity, and a vibrant, mineral-driven fruity character.

Price

Bottle | £45

Taron Crianza Rioja Alta, D.O. Rioja

The Producer

Bodegas Taron, a Rioja Alta cooperative of four towns, unites 700 hectares of vineyards—including 100-year-old vines for their premium Cepas Centenarias—to craft high-quality Rioja.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%
Grape Variety: Tempranillo (95%) Mazuelo (5%)
Origin: Rioja

Tasting notes

Bodegas Taron's Crianza blends Tempranillo and Mazuelo, aged 12 months in American oak + 12 in bottle. Vibrant ruby red, with red berries, spice, and smooth tannins for a long, balanced finish.

Price

Bottle | £46

Altún, D.O. Rioja

The Producer	Founded in 1990 by José Antonio Martínez Fernández, Bodegas Altún is located in Baños de Ebro, with 35 hectares of estate vineyards. With five generations dedicated to winemaking, the winery is now one of the most prestigious in Rioja Alavesa, known for its Altún wines.
General information	Alcohol Content: 13.5% Grape Variety: Tempranillo Origin: Rioja Vinification: 12 months in American and French barrels (50/50)
Tasting notes	This wine has a bright red cherry color and an elegant nose of ripe fruit intertwined with oak. On the palate, it is balanced and full-bodied, with rounded tannins and a fruity, fresh character. The finish is long and pleasant.
Price	Bottle £47

El Andén, D.O. Rioja

The Producer	Founded in 1932, Bodegas Muga is a family-run winery in Haro, La Rioja Alta. Known for traditional winemaking, they use French and American oak casks throughout the process. Their wines, sourced from the Oja and Tirón river valleys, have earned international acclaim.
General information	Alcohol Content: 14% Grape Variety: Tempranillo, Garnacha Origin: Rioja Vinification: : Matured in French and European barrels for 14 months
Tasting notes	The El Andén De La Estación by Bodegas Muga from La Rioja presents a dense crimson colour in the glass. The first nose of El Andén De La Estación presents nuances of mulberries, blueberries and blackcurrants. The fruity parts of the bouquet are accompanied by notes of cask ageing such as oak, juniper and Mediterranean herbs.
Price	Bottle £47

Azabache Reserva, D.O. Rioja

The Producer	Founded in 1956, Fincas de Azabache is a cooperative with 2,600 hectares of vineyards at the foot of Mount Yerga, in Rioja Oriental. Committed to organic viticulture, they recently invested in a new winery, enhancing their winemaking capabilities.
General information	Alcohol Content: 14% Grape Variety: 70% Tempranillo, 20% Garnacha, 10% Graciano Origin: Rioja
Tasting notes	Rioja Reserva is crafted from the best vintages, blending Tempranillo and Graciano for a balanced, seductive character. Aged for two years in American oak and one in bottle, it offers intense plum, blackberry, and cherry aromas, with smooth tannins and a lingering spicy finish.
Price	Bottle £49

Ermita de San Felices Reserva, D.O. Rioja

The Producer	Founded by Santiago Ijalba in 1998, Bodegas Santalba blends family tradition with modern winemaking. Together with his son Roberto, they focus on balance, elegance, and concentrated Tempranillo. The estate avoids systemic products, promotes biodiversity, and works with nearby family-run vineyards. Their wines are EU-certified vegan and reflect a deep commitment to innovation and tradition.
General information	Alcohol Content: 14% Grape Variety: Tempranillo Origin: Rioja Vinification: Aged in American oak for 18 months.
Tasting notes	This wine has a vibrant cherry-red color with hints of tawny. Aromas of ripe fruit, vanilla, spices, and toasted bread lead to a balanced, powerful palate with a long, elegant finish. It evolves beautifully in the glass and has excellent aging potential.
Price	Bottle £57

Altun Villacardiel, D.O. Rioja

The Producer

The wine house cultivate 120 acres across 23 plots in Rioja, each with unique soil, climate, and native grape varieties that give our wines exceptional character. With a focus on organic, sustainable farming, we take pride in six special plots that contribute to our distinct wines.

General information

Alcohol Content: 13%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo

Origin: Rioja

Vinification: 14 months in 225 and 500-litre French oak casks and concrete tanks.

Tasting notes

This is a wine with a bright, clean cherry-red colour. It has a very expressive nose, dominated by red fruits with subtle notes of blackberries and black currants and floral hints. On the palate it has an elegant impact with polished, oily and unctuous tannins. The finish is fresh and vibrant, very characteristic of the vineyard.

Price

Bottle | £61

Viña Muriel Gran Reserva, D.O. Rioja

The Producer

Viña Muriel honors La Rioja's winemaking tradition, starting with our unique vineyard in Elciego. Our wines reflect wisdom, grandeur, and nobility, embodying classicism in both their creation and enjoyment. They are reserved, exclusive, and require a ritual to fully appreciate their greatness.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo

Origin: Rioja

Vinification: Aged for 24 months in American and French barrels, then matured for 3 years in bottle.

Tasting notes

This magical wine is a symphony of ageing notes (think vanilla, roasted spices, caramels, raising, leather, tobacco). Everything you want in an aged Rioja.

Price

Bottle | £64

Marqués de Riscal, D.O. Rioja

The Producer

Founded in 1858, Marques de Riscal produced the first bottled Rioja in 1862. It became the first non-French wine to win a Bordeaux Exhibition diploma in 1895. Today, it owns nearly 600 hectares of vineyards and its "City of Wine" includes a modern winery and hotel designed by Frank O. Gehry.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14.5%
Grape Variety: 90% Tempranillo, 5% Graciano, 5% Mazuelo
Origin: Rioja
Vinification: 24 months in American oak barrels.

Tasting notes

Intense black-cherry color with deep richness and minimal signs of evolution. The nose is expressive, with notes of liquorice, cinnamon, black pepper, and a hint of cask aging. On the palate, it's fresh, easy to drink, with a good structure and polished tannins. The long, persistent finish reveals subtle balsamic notes.

Price

Bottle | £65

Muga Reserva, D.O. Rioja

The Producer

Bodegas Muga, founded in 1932, is a family-owned winery known for its traditional winemaking methods, using French and American oak vats. Located in La Rioja Alta's Oja and Tirón river valleys, near Haro, it has gained international acclaim for its commitment to quality and craftsmanship.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%
Grape Variety: 70% Tempranillo, 20% Garnacha, 10% Mazuelo & Graciano
Origin: Rioja
Vinification: Aged for 24 months in casks made in our cooperage from selected oak.

Tasting notes

This wine offers a balanced blend of smoked aromas from light-to-medium toasted wood, with subtle vanilla and roasted coffee notes. It has a smooth, mellow attack, with tannins wrapping the mouth and hints of menthol. The finish is long and persistent, leaving a lasting impression.

Price

1/2 Bottle | £37
Bottle | £65

Conde de los Andes, D.O. Rioja

The Producer	Bodegas Ollauri-Conde de los Andes sits in the heart of Rioja Alta and boasts the most stunning 15th century cellars you are ever likely to see. The wine though are bold and modern, and nicely complimented by a plethora of older vintage gems they have to hand.
General information	Alcohol Content: 14.5% Grape Variety: Tempranillo Origin: Rioja Vinification: Aged 14 months in French oak barrels.
Tasting notes	Cherry and summer fruits are superbly balanced with toast and cedar. Very complex modern Rioja, that like many producers now, forgoes displaying the ageing criteria it has qualified for.
Price	Bottle £87

Marques de Murrieta Reserva, D.O. Rioja

The Producer	Bodegas Murrieta's origins date back to 1848, when Marques Luciano de Murrieta traveled to Bordeaux to learn winemaking. In 1878, he purchased the Ygay estate near Logrono. Today, the family still owns and operates the business, with 300 hectares of vineyards in Rioja Alta.
General information	Alcohol Content: 14% Grape Variety: 87% Tempranillo, 6% Graciano, 5% Mazuelo, 2% Garnacha Origin: Rioja Vinification: Aged for 16 months in American oak barrels.
Tasting notes	The wine offers rich, harmonious flavors of cherries, balsamic, chocolate, vanilla, and a touch of eucalyptus.
Price	Bottle £93

Pantocrator, D.O. Rioja

The Producer

Bodegas Taron is a cooperative in Rioja Alta, formed by the towns of Cuzcurrita de Rio Tiron, Sajazarra, Villaseca, and Tirgo. Together, they combine their vineyards and expertise to produce high-quality Rioja wines. With 700 hectares of vineyards across over 1,000 plots, some of which feature vines over 100 years old, they create their premium wine, Cepas Centenarias.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%

Grape Variety: 90% Tempranillo, 10% Mazuelo

Origin: Rioja

Vinification: The two varieties are aged separately in American oak barrels for 12 months, then blended and returned to the barrels for an additional 6 months. Afterward, the wine is aged in stainless steel tanks for 12 months.

Tasting notes

A perfect balance of power and elegance, with notes of black cherries, liquorice, sweet spices such as cinnamon and clove and a light mineral touch on the finish.

Price

Bottle | £109

XR Special Release Reserva, D.O. Rioja

The Producer

The best vineyards of tempranillo and graciano from Elciego, in the heart of Rioja Alavesa, and meticulous and precise production. The origins of the house go back to 1858.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14.5%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo, Graciano

Origin: Rioja

Vinification: Aged for 24 months in American oak barrels.

Tasting notes

The second vintage of "Extra Rouge" takes quality and aging to the next level. It has an expressive nose with aromas of licorice, cinnamon, and black pepper, while the extended wood aging adds concentration, ripe fruit, and complexity. On the palate, it is fresh with smooth tannins and good structure, leading to a long finish with subtle balsamic notes.

Price

Bottle | £135

Prado Enea, D.O. Rioja

The Producer

Bodegas Muga, a family-run winery since 1932, is renowned for its traditional winemaking methods. Located in La Rioja Alta's Oja and Tirón river valleys, the winery uses French and American oak vats and casks for aging. Situated on the outskirts of Haro, a historic hub of Rioja's prestigious bodegas, Muga wines have earned international acclaim.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%

Grape Variety: 80% Tempranillo, 7% Garnacha, 7% Mazuelo, 6% Graciano

Origin: Rioja

Vinification: 12 months in wooden vats, 3 years in oak barrels and at least 36 months in the bottle.

Tasting notes

Prado Enea shows a deep ruby color with brick hues and a tawny rim. Its nose offers intense, complex aromas of liqueur, leather, damp earth, vanilla, coconut, and red berries. Despite its power, the wine remains delicate and harmonious on the palate, with silky notes of leather, cinnamon, and vanilla. The finish is long, distinctive, and memorable.

Price

Bottle | £182

