

Pazos de Ulloa, D.O. Ribeiro

The Producer

Our vineyards are in Ribeiro, a valley shaped by the Miño River and its tributaries. The region's ideal climate, south-facing granite slopes (called costeiras), and thermal springs—making it a top European thermal tourism destination—create perfect conditions for growing exceptional grapes.

General information

Alcohol Content: 11%

Grape Variety: Treixadura, Palomino & Torrontes

Origin: Ribeiro

Vinification: :After fermentation, the wine ages on lees, then blends for balance before cold stabilization and bottling.

Tasting notes

This vibrant straw-yellow wine offers citrus, melon, and apple aromas. Fresh and balanced, it pairs perfectly with seafood, shellfish, and Galician cheese.

Price

175ml | £8.50

Bottle | £35

Inurrieta Orchidea, D.O. Navarra

The Producer

Inurrieta, the name of the land our family has farmed for nearly a century, is where we, as winegrowers, planted our own vineyards to ensure the best possible raw material. This philosophy, which we take great pride in, is rooted in our choice of a privileged location with ideal conditions for vine cultivation.

General information

Alcohol Content: 13%

Grape Variety: Sauvignon Blanc

Origin: Navarra

Vinification: Aged on fine lees in tank for 3-4 months

Tasting notes

This Sauvignon Blanc captivates with its vibrant mix of tropical fruit, citrus, and grassy notes. Its bright, greenish-yellow color shines, while aromas of pineapple, passion fruit, grapefruit, and boxwood create complexity. The smooth, rich palate is enhanced by aging on fine lees in tank.

Price

175ml | £9

Bottle | £36

Sabina Estate Chardonnay, D.O. Navarra

The Producer

The name Sabina is taken from the indigenous Spanish Juniper tree grown locally in Navarra, recognisable for its horizontal growing, almost 'storm-battered look'.

General information

Alcohol Content: 13.5%

Grape Variety: Chardonnay

Origin: Navarra

Vinification: Fermented in 50% French and 50% American oak and aged on lees for 3 months with regular stirring.

Tasting notes

Developing intense tropical aromas, fresh citrus fruit and hints of vanilla with an elegant balance on the finish.

Price

175ml | £9

Bottle | £36

Muriel Blanco, D.O. Rioja

The Producer

Located in the town of Elciego in the heart of the Altesa subregion, Bodegas Muriel has a winemaking tradition harking all the way back to 1926.

General information

Alcohol Content: 13%

Grape Variety: 100% Viura

Origin: Rioja

Vinification: Fermentation in stainless steel tanks at a controlled temperature of 16° C to maintain the maximum aromatic freshness in the wine.

Tasting notes

Clean and bright, pale yellow in colour, presenting green hues. Floral and fruity notes on the nose, of green apples, citrus and stone fruit. Balanced acidity with a long finish.

Price

175ml | £9.50

Bottle | £37

Reveleste, D.O. Rias Baixas

The Producer

Reveleste Albariño is crafted by Adegas Laureatus in the Salnés Valley (Rías Baixas). The winery hand-harvests grapes, gently presses them, and ferments them in stainless steel to preserve delicate flavors.

General information

Alcohol Content: 13%

Grape Variety: Albariño

Origin: Rias Baixas

Vinification: Hand-harvested at peak ripeness, gently pressed, and fermented to preserve freshness and purity

Tasting notes

Aromas of ripe citrus fruit leading to a fresh, crisp palate of lemon zest, fresh lime, zingy green apples, stone fruits and notes of flint soil. As with all good Albariño's there is a fruit bowl of flavours, all distinctive, yet combining to a delicious glass of wine.

Price

175ml | £11

Bottle | £45

