

Inurrieta Norte, D.O. Navarra

The Producer	Inurrieta, named after our family's century-old farmland, reflects our winegrower roots. We planted our own vineyards in an exceptional location to cultivate premium grapes—the foundation of our proud winemaking philosophy.
General information	Alcohol Content: 14.5% Grape Variety: Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot Origin: Navarra Vinification: Aged for 6 months in French oak barrels
Tasting notes	United as a symbol of northern strength, our wine is aged in quality French oak for harmony and smoothness. Medium-high layer, aromatic, and fruity with subtle oak notes. Round, intense, and balanced with a long finish.
Price	Bottle £36

Sabina Estate Reserva, D. O. Navarra

The Producer	Navarran wines are criminally underrated and PdV are the leader of Navarra wines in the UK Market. All about great value and consistency. The name Sabina is taken from the indigenous Spanish juniper tree grown locally in Navarra, recognisable for its horizontal growing, almost 'storm-battered' look.
General information	Alcohol Content: 14% Grape Variety: Tempranillo, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Merlot Origin: Navarra Vinification: Hand-harvested, cold-macerated, aged in French & American oak for depth.
Tasting notes	Complex nose of stewed fruit, herbal characters and hints of vanilla and cocoa. The flavours are soft with developed black fruit, eucalyptus and rosemary all wrapped up in a warm toasty richness.
Price	Bottle £45

Petites Estones, D.O. Montsant

The Producer

Estones Vins, founded by winemaker Salvi Moliner and sommelier Sergi Montalà, creates fruit-forward wines from Montsant's Aiguasals and Els Guiamets estates. Produced in a converted Falset discotheque, their wines focus on balance, with fruit over oak, resulting in expressive, easy-drinking bottles like Estones and Terces magnums.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%

Grape Variety: Granacha, Cariñena

Origin: Navarra

Vinification: Hand-harvested and carefully selected, the Grenache ferments for 16 days and the Carignan for 22 in stainless steel. After malolactic fermentation, it ages for seven months in second- and third-use oak barrels before being cold-stabilized and lightly filtered for bottling.

Tasting notes

The sense of smell is predominant with primary aromas where red fruits stand out. Strawberry, cherry and raspberry mix together with a soft roasted and spicy touch, with light balsamic notes; eucalyptus and white pepper. It is soft in mouth, lightly furry and fresh.

Gran Sangre de Toro, D.O. Penedès

The Producer

Gran Sangre de Toro is crafted from top Garnacha, Cariñena, and Syrah grapes, grown in a region renowned for its Mediterranean wines since Roman times. In the late 1960s, Miguel Torres Carbó set out to create a distinctive wine, blending 60% Garnacha, 25% Cariñena, and later adding 15% Syrah. Aged in oak, it boasts an intense color and rich, fruity aroma.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%

Grape Variety: 60% Garnacha, 25% Cariñena, 15% Syrah

Origin: Catalunya

Vinification: 12 months aged in oak

Tasting notes

All the exuberant aroma traditionally found in an intense, ripe red wine, with a sensual background of fine spices in good balance with perfumed notes reminiscent of blackberries. Full, long finish on the palate.

Volver, D.O. La Mancha

The Producer

Located in Casas de Los Pinos, Cuenca, at 600-700 meters above sea level, the vineyard benefits from an extreme continental climate, surrounded by pine forests. These conditions protect the vines, enabling environmentally-friendly cultivation with minimal interventions.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%

Grape Variety: Tempranillo

Origin: La Mancha

Vinification: 14 months in new and second vintage French oak Burgundy and Bordelaise barrels.

Tasting notes

The nose reveals a rich array of redcurrant, blackberry, and dark fruit aromas, complemented by hints of tobacco and licorice. On the palate, it's full-bodied and expressive, with ripe fruit flavors that envelop the senses. Its complexity and velvety texture culminate in a long, focused finish, leaving you craving another sip.

El Valao, D.O. Bierzo

The Producer

Marcos García Alba and his sister Elena run a small family winery with 14 hectares of vineyards, focusing on quality over quantity. They produce wines solely from their own grapes, with Pago de Valdoneje—named after their grandfather's vineyard—showcasing their commitment to concentrated, aromatic wines with a distinct Bierzo character.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14.5%

Grape Variety: Mencia

Origin: Bierzo

Vinification: After malolactic fermentation 6-8 months in French oak barrels.

Tasting notes

Red fruits such as berries and wild berries. Toasted notes of smoke and liquorice. Great depth and a persistent fruit-driven finish. Perfect balance with very fine tannins.

Godelia Selección Mencia, D.O. Bierzo

The Producer

Founded in 2000 by the Farina family, Attis spans 12.3 acres of Albarino vineyards. In 2011, they invested in a modern winery and, with expert advice from Jean-Francois Hebrard, adopted ecological practices. The 2012 vintage marked their shift to spontaneous fermentation, lees aging, and reduced sulphur use.

General information

Alcohol Content: 14%

Grape Variety: Mencia

Origin: Bierzo

Vinification: The wine was aged in french oak barrels for 16 months.

Tasting notes

There are intense, ripe, red fruit notes together with a metallic minerality and fine spicy nuances of the oak which is rich and well integrated and persistent on the finish. The real character of the terroir comes through in this wine.

1270 A Vuit, D.O. Priorat

The Producer

The Hidalgo Albert family has been making quality wines in southern Catalonia for over 25 years. Their winery, named "1270 a vuit," references the village of Poboleda, founded by French monks in 1190. In 1270, the monks granted a town charter to eight farming families, marking the village's foundation

General information

Alcohol Content: 15%

Grape Variety: 40% Garnacha, 20% Carignan, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Syrah, 10% Merlot

Origin: Catalunya

Vinification: All grapes are hand-picked. This full bodied Priorat is fermented in barriques and spends a further 12 months ageing in them.

Tasting notes

The result is a complex aroma of ripe fruits with anise and smokeyness from the well integrated oak. The palate is very intense, but the wine has spent an extra 18 months in bottle which smooths the tannins leading to a lovely long, fresh and balanced finish.
